

January 27, 2012

Dear Student/Parent/Guardian:

I am writing to inform all parents of students at PHS in grades 9-11 that on Monday evening, February 6th, at 7:15 PM, immediately following the second semester Back to School Night, you are invited to attend a discussion/presentation on student scheduling for the 2012-2013 school year.

The meeting will be held in the High School Auditorium. Since we have made modifications in course offerings, including electives in both the core and related arts areas, I believe the evening will be worth your time and interest.

Students will also receive this information in school; however, students and parents are encouraged to attend together. Due to financial constraints, the 2012-13 Course Catalog will be available on the Palmyra Area School District Web Site only.

Sincerely,

David R. Jones M. Ed.
Principal
