

Psychological Services

School Psychologists help to facilitate the identification process by participating in Pre-referral Building Teams, Student Support Teams In the Elementary, and Student Assistance Program Teams in the Secondary.

If a parent suspects that their child may be exceptional they should contact the building principal to gain a better understanding of the support process.